

3 international marketing:

1. What is the difference between domestic and international marketing?
 - a. Domestic marketing does not require knowledge of international trade regulations
 - b. International marketing involves marketing products in multiple countries
 - c. Domestic marketing focuses on local customers, while international marketing focuses on foreign customers
 - d. International marketing is more expensive than domestic marketing
2. What is a key factor that companies must consider when developing an international marketing strategy?
 - a. Language barriers
 - b. Cultural differences
 - c. Competition in the domestic market
 - d. The cost of labor
3. What is the process of adapting a product to meet the unique needs of foreign customers?
 - a. Standardization
 - b. Localization
 - c. Internationalization
 - d. Globalization
4. What is a tariff?
 - a. A tax on imports or exports
 - b. A fee for shipping goods overseas
 - c. A payment made to a broker for international shipping services
 - d. A requirement for products to be labeled in multiple languages
5. What is a joint venture?
 - a. A partnership between two or more companies in which they share resources to achieve a common goal

- b. A legal agreement that allows a company to sell its products in a foreign market
- c. A method of financing international trade that involves using a letter of credit
- d. A document that outlines the terms of a sale of goods from one company to another

6. Which of the following is a potential advantage of exporting?

- a. Reduced risk
- b. High profits
- c. Increased control over distribution
- d. Reduced shipping costs

7. What is a licensing agreement?

- a. A legal agreement that allows one company to use another company's intellectual property in exchange for a fee
- b. An agreement between countries to reduce tariffs on certain goods
- c. A contract between two companies to share resources and achieve a common goal
- d. A document that outlines the terms of a sale of goods from one company to another

8. Which of the following is a potential disadvantage of direct investment in a foreign market?

- a. High risk
- b. High shipping costs
- c. Limited control over distribution
- d. Limited access to local knowledge and resources

9. What is a cultural barrier to international marketing?

- a. Different laws and regulations in foreign markets
- b. Language differences
- c. Differences in consumer preferences and values
- d. Different distribution channels in foreign markets

10. What is a product adaptation for international markets?

- a. Modifying a product to meet the unique needs of foreign customers
- b. Developing a new product specifically for a foreign market
- c. Standardizing a product for global distribution
- d. Creating a product for export only

11. What is market segmentation?

- a. The process of dividing a market into smaller groups with similar needs or characteristics
- b. The process of sourcing materials for production
- c. The process of distributing products to retailers
- d. The process of promoting products to customers

12. What is a multinational corporation?

- a. A company that operates in multiple countries
- b. A company that operates exclusively in one country
- c. A company that has joint ventures with other companies in foreign markets
- d. A company that exports its products to foreign markets

13. What is a trade barrier?

- a. Any obstacle to international trade, such as tariffs, quotas, or regulations
- b. A legal requirement for foreign companies to have a local partner in order to do business in a country
- c. A requirement that products be certified by a government agency before they can be sold in a foreign market
- d. A requirement for products to be labeled in multiple languages

14. What is a market entry strategy?

- a. A plan for how a company will enter a new market
- b. A sales pitch to potential customers
- c. A process for sourcing materials for production

d. A promotional campaign for a new product

15. What is a distribution strategy?

a. A plan for how products will be delivered to customers

b. A plan for how products will be promoted to customers

c. A plan for how products will be manufactured

d. A plan for how products will be priced

16. What is a product standardization for international markets?

a. Developing a new product specifically for a foreign market

b. Modifying a product to meet the unique needs of foreign customers

c. Standardizing a product for global distribution

d. Creating a product for export only

17. Which of the following best describes a global marketing strategy?

a. A standardized approach to marketing that ignores cultural differences

b. An approach that focuses on adapting products to meet the unique needs of every foreign market

c. An approach that balances standardization with local adaptation to achieve a consistent brand image

d. An approach that focuses exclusively on selling products in domestic markets

18. What is an international pricing strategy?

a. A plan for how products will be priced in foreign markets

b. A plan for how products will be produced in foreign markets

c. A plan for how products will be promoted in foreign markets

d. A plan for how products will be distributed in foreign markets

19. What is a global brand?

a. A brand that is recognized in multiple countries

b. A brand that is only sold in one country

- c. A brand that is adapted to meet the unique needs of every foreign market
- d. A brand that is exclusively sold in foreign markets

20. What is the difference between a franchise and a licensing agreement?

- a. A franchise is a partnership between two companies, while a licensing agreement is a legal agreement allowing a company to use another company's intellectual property
- b. A franchise involves selling the rights to use a company's business model, while a licensing agreement involves selling the rights to use a company's intellectual property
- c. A franchise is a type of joint venture, while a licensing agreement is a type of direct investment
- d. A franchise is a type of direct investment, while a licensing agreement is a type of market entry strategy

21. What is a product positioning for international markets?

- a. The process of developing a marketing message that appeals to foreign customers
- b. The process of adapting a product to meet the unique needs of foreign customers
- c. The process of finding the most favorable position for a product in a foreign market
- d. The process of standardizing a product for global distribution

22. What is a trade agreement?

- a. An agreement between countries to reduce or eliminate trade barriers
- b. A legal requirement for foreign companies to have a local partner in order to do business in a country
- c. A requirement that products be certified by a government agency before they can be sold in a foreign market
- d. A requirement for products to be labeled in multiple languages

23. Which of the following is a potential disadvantage of an international marketing strategy?

- a. Increased sales and profits
- b. Increased competition
- c. Increased cultural awareness
- d. Increased control over distribution

24. What is a cultural adaptation for international marketing?

- a. Modifying a product to meet the unique needs of foreign customers
- b. Creating a product for export only
- c. Standardizing a product for global distribution
- d. Developing a new product specifically for a foreign market

25. What is cultural convergence?

- a. The process by which cultures become more similar over time
- b. The process by which cultures become more diverse over time
- c. The process by which cultures are forced to adapt to one dominant culture
- d. The process by which cultures become isolated and resistant to change.

Marketing

1. Which of the following is NOT one of the four Ps of marketing?

- a) Promotion
- b) Price
- c) Place
- d) Product

Answer: d) Product

2. Which of the following is an example of demographic segmentation?

- a) Dividing the market based on geographic location
- b) Dividing the market based on age
- c) Dividing the market based on lifestyle
- d) Dividing the market based on psychographics

Answer: b) Dividing the market based on age

3. Which of the following is NOT a common marketing objective?

- a) Building brand awareness
- b) Increasing social media followers
- c) Generating leads
- d) Increasing sales revenue

Answer: b) Increasing social media followers

4. Which of the following is an example of a pull marketing strategy?

- a) Offering discounts to wholesalers
- b) Advertising directly to consumers
- c) Providing incentives to salespeople

d) Offering volume discounts to retailers

Answer: b) Advertising directly to consumers

5. Which of the following is an example of a unique selling proposition (USP)?

a) Our product is the best on the market

b) Our product is the most affordable option available

c) Our product is the only one that uses organic ingredients

d) Our product is 10% cheaper than our competitors

Answer: c) Our product is the only one that uses organic ingredients

6. Which of the following is NOT a common pricing strategy?

a) Cost-plus pricing

b) Value-based pricing

c) Skimming pricing

d) Cost-cutting pricing

Answer: d) Cost-cutting pricing

7. Which of the following is NOT a common advertising medium?

a) Television

b) Billboards

c) Email

d) Smoke signals

Answer: d) Smoke signals

8. Which of the following is an example of market penetration?

a) Selling a new product to a new market

b) Selling an existing product to an existing market

c) Selling an existing product to a new market

d) Selling a new product to an existing market Answer: b) Selling an existing product to an existing market

9. Which of the following is an example of a guerrilla marketing tactic?

- a) Running a television commercial during a popular sports event
- b) Hosting a celebrity endorsement event
- c) Creating a viral video campaign on social media
- d) Printing brochures and handing them out at a trade show

Answer: c) Creating a viral video campaign on social media

10. Which of the following is NOT a common marketing research method?

- a) Surveys
- b) Focus groups
- c) Public opinion polls
- d) Reading tarot cards

Answer: d) Reading tarot cards

11. What type of marketing is focused on building long-term relationships with key stakeholders?

- a) Direct marketing
- b) Digital marketing
- c) Relationship marketing
- d) Indirect marketing

Answer: c) Relationship marketing

12. What is the process of dividing a market into smaller groups with distinct needs and characteristics?

- a) Market segmentation
- b) Market targeting
- c) Product differentiation
- d) None of the above

Answer: a) Market segmentation

13. Which of the following is NOT an element of the marketing mix?

- a) Price
- b) Place
- c) Promotion
- d) Popularity

Answer: d) Popularity

14. Which of the following is an example of a B2C (business-to-consumer) company?

- a) A company that sells products to other businesses
- b) A company that provides consulting services to other businesses
- c) A company that sells products directly to individual consumers
- d) A & B only

Answer: c) A company that sells products directly to individual consumers

15. What is the process of creating a unique name and image for a product in the consumer's mind?

- a) Promotional marketing
- b) Branding
- c) Advertising
- d) Mass marketing

Answer: b) Branding

16. Which of the following is NOT a characteristic of a strong brand?

- a) Trustworthiness
- b) Consistency
- c) Expensiveness
- d) Relevancy

Answer: c) Expensiveness

17.Which of the following is an example of psychographic segmentation?

- a. Segmentation based on age
- b. Segmentation based on gender
- c. Segmentation based on income
- d. Segmentation based on values and attitudes

Answer: d

18.which of the following is an example of geographic segmentation?

- a. Segmentation based on ethnicity
- b. Segmentation based on location
- c. Segmentation based on occupation
- d. Segmentation based on education

Answer: b

19.Which of the following is an example of a product-oriented marketing objective?

- a. Increase sales by 20% in the next quarter
- b. Improve customer satisfaction by 15% in the next year
- c. Increase market share by 5% in the next six months
- d. Expand into new geographical markets within the next two years

Answer: c

20. Which of the following is an example of a market-oriented marketing objective?

- a. Increase sales by 20% in the next quarter
- b. Improve customer satisfaction by 15% in the next year
- c. Increase market share by 5% in the next six months

d. Expand into new geographical markets within the next two years

Answer: b

21. Which of the following is NOT a part of the marketing mix?

a. Product

b. Place

c. Profit

d. Promotion

Answer: c

22. Which of the following is an example of a push promotional strategy?

a. Offering a discount to customers who refer a friend

b. Advertising on social media

c. Providing point-of-purchase displays in retail stores

d. Sponsoring a charity event

Answer: c

23. Which of the following is an example of a pull promotional strategy?

a. Offering a discount to customers who refer a friend

b. Advertising on social media

c. Providing point-of-purchase displays in retail stores

d. Sponsoring a charity event

Answer: b

24. Which of the following is an example of a pricing objective?

a. To increase market share

b. To maintain current market position

- c. To improve customer satisfaction
- d. To maximize profits

Answer: d

25. which of the following is an example of a skimming pricing strategy?

- a. Offering a discount for bulk purchases
- b. Offering a free trial period
- c. Setting a high initial price and gradually lowering it over time
- d. Setting a low initial price and gradually raising it over time

Answer: c

26. Which of the following is an example of a penetration pricing strategy?

- a. Offering a discount for bulk purchases
- b. Offering a free trial period
- c. Setting a high initial price and gradually lowering it over time
- d. Setting a low initial price and gradually raising it over time

Answer: d

27. Which of the following is an example of a cost-based pricing strategy?

- a. Setting a price based on competitors' prices
- b. Setting a price based on customer demand
- c. Setting a price based on production costs
- d. Setting a price based on the value of the product to the customer

Answer: c

28. which of the following is an example of a value-based pricing strategy?

- a. Setting a price based on competitors' prices
- b. Setting a price based on customer demand
- c. Setting a price based on production costs

d. Setting a price based on the value of the product to the customer

Answer: d

29. Which of the following is NOT a stage in the product life cycle?

a. Introduction

b. Growth

c. Maturity

d. Decline

e. Stabilization

Answer: e

30. Which of the following is an example of a product in the introduction stage of the product life cycle?

a. The latest version of a smartphone that has been on the market for several years

b. A new software product that is just being released

c. A car model that has been on the market for several years and is still popular

d. A household appliance that is well-established and has been on the market for years

Answer: b