

24. IDENTIFY the right statement regarding HRM
☒ A. Human resource management is a pervasive activity,
B. HRM is being practiced in every organization, including religious institutions
C. The human resource is said to be the most important element in an organization.
D. In an organization, managers at lower levels are not concerned with HRM
25. An HRM function which involves availability of employees with the necessary knowledge, skills, abilities and types whenever required in the future is termed as;
A. Job analysis
☒ B. HR Planning
C. Staffing
D. Selecting
26. All of the following circumstances require external recruitment, except _____
A. To fill entry-level jobs
B. To acquire skills not possessed by current employees
C. To obtain employees with different backgrounds and provide new ideas
☒ D. To motivate current employees
27. _____ is a formal complaint presented by an employee which demonstrates any kind of dissatisfaction in the employee, arising out of the factors related to his/her job
A. Grievance
B. Discipline
C. Labor relation
☒ D. Termination
28. Identify the Effect of grievance on the management
☒ A. Frustration
B. De-motivation
C. High labor turnover
D. Unfriendliness
29. Which of the following is not the element of job description?
A. Job summary
☒ B. Primary Responsibilities
C. List of Typical Duties and Responsibilities
D. Desirable amount of previous experience in similar work
30. Which of the following is a major source of entry-level administrative, technical, and professional talent?
☒ A. Colleges and Universities
B. Walk-ins and Write-ins
C. Self-employed Workers
D. Competitors
31. Which one of the following can't be considered as the benefits of studying OB?
A. Understanding, Predicting, and Influencing behavior
☒ B. Development of soft skills/ interpersonal skills
C. Personal Growth through insight into human behavior
D. Sharpening & refining common sense
☒ E. None